BRITISH SOCIETY OF UROGENITAL RADIOLOGY (BSUR)

BSUR Education Faculty Member

Role Specification & Call for Expressions of Interest

Role Title:	BSUR Education Faculty Member (4 positions available)
Reports To / Lead:	BSUR Education Officer (Chair of Faculty & liaison to the BSUR Committee)
Term of Office:	2 Years
Closing Date:	17 December

1. ROLE PURPOSE

The BSUR Education Faculty brings together a small, dedicated group of enthusiastic members to help shape the Society's educational programme and develop high-quality, practical teaching for the urogenital radiology community. Designed as a creative and rewarding role, it offers members the opportunity to make a visible, lasting impact on BSUR education.

With BSUR joining the Royal College of Radiologists (RCR)-approved Special Interest Group (SIG) national lecture programme for resident doctors, the Education Faculty will play a central role in developing and delivering this initiative—coordinating the lecture programme, identifying and engaging expert speakers across the UK, and ensuring the delivery of an accessible educational programme that supports resident training nationwide.

2. FACULTY STRUCTURE & GOVERNANCE

The Faculty is structured to remain focused, flexible, and light-touch, operating independently of routine Society administration:

- Faculty Leadership: Led by the BSUR Education Officer, who represents the Faculty on the BSUR Committee and takes its recommendations forward.
- Urological Imaging Representatives: Two radiologists with a specialist interest in urological imaging.
- Gynaecological Imaging Representatives: Two radiologists with a specialist interest in gynaecological imaging.
- Governance Scope: Faculty members are not members of the BSUR Committee and are not required to attend routine Committee meetings.

3. KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Working collaboratively under the guidance of the BSUR Education Officer, Faculty members will:

- RCR SIG National Lecture Programme: Help develop, coordinate, and deliver the national lecture programme for resident doctors (launching September 2027), including identifying and arranging expert UK speakers.
- Programme Innovation: Generate fresh ideas for BSUR webinars, teaching sessions, workshops, and educational initiatives.
- Annual Scientific Meeting (ASM): Contribute to shaping high-value educational content for the BSUR Annual Scientific Meeting.

- Trainee & Early-Career Support: Support and enhance the Society's educational offer for radiology registrars and early-career radiologists.
- Digital Educational Resources: Develop or commission practical, accessible online educational materials for the membership.
- Network & Collaboration: Connect with enthusiastic speakers, trainees, and subject-matter experts across the BSUR membership.

4. PERSON SPECIFICATION

Applicants do not need to hold a formal or established educational lead role. We welcome expressions of interest from BSUR members who demonstrate the following attributes:

Criterion	Attributes Sought
Membership & Subspecialty	Current BSUR member with a clinical/academic interest in either urological imaging or gynaecological imaging.
Teaching Ethos	Genuine enjoyment of teaching, mentoring, and sharing good clinical and educational practice.
Creativity & Drive	Brings fresh ideas, energy, and enthusiasm to make BSUR education engaging, practical, and worth attending.
Collaboration	Enjoys working collaboratively and constructively with clinical colleagues and trainees across the UK.
Society Engagement	Motivated to become more actively involved in the work and community of BSUR.

5. TIME COMMITMENT & TENURE

- Tenure: 2 years from appointment.
- Time Commitment: Proportionate, flexible, and enjoyable—comprising a small number of virtual meetings per year, with tasks distributed according to individual members' interests and availability.
- Meeting Expectations: No attendance at routine BSUR Committee meetings is required; the Education Officer acts as the direct link between the Faculty and the Committee.
