RCR/BSUR TRAVELLING PROFESSORSHIP

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS | FEBRUARY 2027 – FEBRUARY 2028

APPLICATION DEADLINE Monday 4 January 2027

Following the success of the inaugural year, the British Society of Urogenital Radiology (BSUR), in partnership with the Royal College of Radiologists (RCR), is pleased to invite applications for the second RCR/BSUR Travelling Professorship.

PURPOSE OF THE AWARD

- Raise the profile of urogenital radiology as a specialty across the UK.
- Promote best practice in imaging acquisition and reporting techniques.
- Encourage urogenital radiology as a specialist interest and future career pathway.
- Deliver dedicated urogenital radiology teaching to trainees and consultants in centres across the UK.

THE ROLE

- Undertake 4–8 visits to UK training schemes over a 12-month period, delivering either a half-day or a full day of case-based specialist teaching.
- Deliver a lecture at the BSUR Annual Scientific Meeting (ASM).
- Teaching may cover uroradiology, gynaecological radiology, or both.

TENURE

The successful applicant will hold the position for 12 months, from February 2027 to February 2028. This is the second appointment to the Travelling Professorship.

HOW TO APPLY

Please submit your application by email to enquiries@bsur.org.uk by Monday 4 January 2027. Applications should include:

- A short CV (maximum two pages), including contact details and teaching experience.
- A proposal (maximum 500 words) outlining the teaching you intend to deliver during the Travelling Professorship visits.
- Contact details for two referees.

Selection process: If more than one application is received, anonymised applications will be circulated to BSUR members, who will be invited to vote.

PRACTICAL ARRANGEMENTS

- Travel and other eligible visit expenses will be reimbursed by the RCR through its ExpensIn service, in accordance with the RCR expenses policy.
- The Travelling Professor will arrange teaching events at times convenient to them.
- The RCR will provide administrative support with arranging visits, including sharing details of local Training Programme Directors (TPDs) and seeking expressions of interest for teaching events.
