

BSUR Co-opted Urology Vacancy

Job Description

- Have wide experience of the subspecialty and evidence of previous involvement at local and national level in service development, research and leadership roles
- Participate in subspecialty discussions provide advice to the committee where necessary and representing the society more generally in the radiological community
- Help organise the urology elements of the ASM and other invited meetings, webinars
- Keep Urology content of website updated

General Committee Duties include:

- Attend quarterly virtual committee meetings to plan the annual scientific meeting, discuss issues related to urogenital radiology and respond to communication from RCR and other specialist societies
- Work collaboratively with other committee members to serve the requirements of the BSUR members and other stakeholders
- Actively participate at the AGM and ASM
- Provide educational content to the website
- Participate in the RCR i-Refer panel

Criteria for the appointment of the BSUR Co-opted Urology member:

1. Consultant Radiologist with special interest in Urogenital Radiology, on the GMC specialist register.
2. Must have an interest in urological imaging.
3. Should ideally have attended previous BSUR meetings or allied courses / conferences in order to demonstrate a track record of Urogenital and urological imaging interest.

Application:

Please send a personal statement (which should be no more than 250 words long) along with a short CV explaining why you wish to take on this role and how you would contribute to BSUR to enquiries@bsur.org.uk. This will be forwarded to the BSUR Committee for evaluation and you will be informed of the committee's decision.

Closing date: September 4th 2025