

BSUR Communications Officer Vacancy

Job Description

- Work with our website developer to ensure content is kept relevant and up-to-date
- Direct website communications from members and stakeholders to the appropriate committee members
- Communicate relevant information to the wider membership with details of the ASM, Educational content, Webinars and study days via email and social media.
- Monitor the BSUR official email account and reply on behalf of the society or forward emails to relevant committee members to deal with.
- Being the point of contact for committee members to send out emails for them to the wider membership.
- Co-ordinate the BSUR X account, and expand the profile of the society on social media platforms to advertise educational events
- Term of office is 2 years

General Committee Duties include:

- Attend quarterly committee meetings to plan the annual scientific meeting, discuss issues related to urogenital radiology and respond to communication from RCR and other specialist societies
- Work collaboratively with other committee members to serve the requirements of the BSUR members and other stakeholders
- Actively participate at the AGM and ASM
- Provide educational content to the website
- Participate in the RCR i-Refer panel

Criteria for the appointment of the BSUR Communications Officer member:

1. Applicant should be a Consultant or senior Specialist Trainee in Radiology, on the specialist register or post FRCR and in a recognised training scheme in the UK respectively.
2. Must have an interest in urogenital imaging.
3. Should ideally have attended previous BSUR meetings or allied courses / conferences in order to demonstrate a track record of Urogenital imaging interest.

Application:

Please send a personal statement (which should be no more than 250 words long) along with a short CV explaining why you wish to take on this role and how you would contribute to BSUR to enquiries@bsur.org.uk. This will be forwarded to the BSUR Committee for evaluation and you will be informed of the committee's decision.

Closing date: March 30th 2026